FOURTH SCHEDULE
CODE OF ETHICAL CONDUCT IN BUSINESS
[Made under section 89(1)]

Ethical principles.

1.-(1) Employees shall not use their authority or office for personal gain and shall seek to uphold and enhance the reputation of the Government of Zanzibar at home and abroad by-

- (a) maintaining an impeccable standard of integrity in all business relationships both inside and outside the organisations in which they are employed;
- (b) fostering the highest possible standards of competence;
- (c) optimising the use of resources for which they are responsible to provide the maximum benefit to Zanzibar; and
- (d) complying both with the letter and the spirit of-
  - (i) the laws of Zanzibar and regulatory guidance;
  - (ii) accepted business practices in commercial markets; and
  - (iii) contractual conditions.

Conflict of interest.

2. Employees shall reveal any personal interest that may impinge or might reasonably be deemed by others to impinge on an employee's business dealings with an industry.

Confidentiality and accuracy of information.

3.-(1) Employees shall respect the confidentiality of information received in the course of business dealings and shall never use such information for personal gain.

(2) Information given by employees in the course of business dealings shall be true and fair and not designed to mislead.

Competition.

4. Employees shall avoid any business arrangement that might prevent the effective operation of fair competition.

Business gifts.

5. Employees shall not accept business gifts from current or potential Government suppliers unless such gifts are of very small intrinsic value such as a calendar or a pen.

Hospitality.

6. Employees shall refrain from any business hospitality that might be viewed by others as having an influence in making a government business decision as a result of accepting that hospitality.

Restricted
international bidding.

7. A member of the Authority, a procuring and disposing entity or expert contracted to deliver specific services shall not use to his or her personal or organisational advantage, information acquired by him or her by virtue of his or her association with the Authority or a procuring and disposing entity for a period of one year after vacating office or ceasing to render the specific services.

Interpretation.

8. In this schedule, "employee" means a public officer and an expert.
